Your deputation/ employment may be terminated immediately by the Company upon the occurrence of any of the following without prejudice to any of the rights of the Company:

a) You commit or arrested or otherwise officially charged with a felony or any crime involving moral turpitude, or any other criminal activity or unethical conduct which, in the opinion of the Company, would impair your ability to perform your duties hereunder or would impair the reputation of the Company.
b) You commit an act, or omit to take action in detriment to the interest of Company.

c) In the opinion of the Company, you have failed and or neglected to perform fully or faithfully your duties and obligations under this deputation.
d) You fail or refuse to comply with the policies, standards or regulations of the Company.
e) You violate any of the warranties contained in Section 13 hereof.

12. Remedy for Breach – In the event of any breach of this deputation, the party alleged to have committed such breach shall be entitled to written notice of such alleged breach and a period of fifteen (15) days to remedy such breach (except in case of any of the breaches under clause 10 hereinabove). You understand that a breach of any one or more of the covenants contained herein will result in irreparable and continuing damage to the Company for which there will be no adequate remedy at law, and in the event of any breach or threatened breach of your obligations hereunder, the Company may, in addition to the other remedies which may be available to it:

a) Declare forfeited any sums representing accrued salary or other fringe benefits otherwise due and payable to you, and, or alternatively,
b) File suit to enjoy you from the breach or threatened breach of such covenants.
c) Initiate appropriate legal proceedings to recover any sums due under this deputation letter.

13. Representations and Warranties– You represent and warrant to the Company that:

I. You are under no contractual or other restriction or obligation, compliance with which is inconsistent with the execution of this deputation, the performance of your obligations hereunder, or the other rights of the Company hereunder.
II. You are under no physical or mental disability that would hinder the performance of your obligations under this deputation.
III. You are not banned from entering in any manner the country of your deputation.
IV. No criminal or police case is pending against you in India which may preclude you from going out of country or you may be called back as accused, witness or otherwise by any judicial, quasi-judicial or any other authority in India.
V. Your passport is not confiscated or has any restrictive clauses which will preclude you accepting this deputation.
VI. You are not suffering from any disease, and you shall undergo necessary medical tests, vaccinations etc. as may require before being deputed in the country of your deputation.

14. Waiver – The failure of either party to enforce any rights hereunder shall not be deemed to be a waiver of such rights, unless such waiver is an express written waiver, which has been signed by the waiving party. Waiver of any one breach shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any other breach of the same or any other provision hereof.

15. Miscellaneous –
a) This deputation does not in any way create any obligation on the company to promote you on your return, or while on deputation or otherwise.
b) You shall comply with all the applicable laws, rules and regulations of the country in which you are deputed, and the company shall not be liable in any manner whatsoever for any non-compliance by you.

16. Choice of Law and Jurisdiction – The validity of this deputation, the construction of its terms and the determination of the rights and duties of the parties hereto shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India. The parties hereby consent to the jurisdiction of the courts of Pune only and expressly waive any and all objections with respect to the same.

17. Legal Fees - In any action or proceeding commenced to enforce the provisions of this deputation, the prevailing party shall be entitled to its reasonable attorney's fees and costs and disbursements on demand and without demur.

18. Amendments – This deputation letter may be amended or modified at any time in all respects, but only by an instrument in writing executed and agreed upon by the parties.

19. Notices – Any notice, communication, request, reply or advice given hereunder by either party to the other shall be in writing and may be effected by personal delivery or by registered or certified mail postage prepaid with return receipt requested and addressed as follows:

If to the Company, to:
KPIT Technologies Limited
Plot no. 17, Rajiv Gandhi Infotech Park
MIDC-SEZ Phase - 3, Hinjewadi
Pune- 411 057 (India)
With a copy to: Human Resources Department

If to you, at your address registered with the company in India and also at country where you will be deputed or at such other address as either party may notify the other from time to time. Notices delivered personally shall be deemed given on actual receipt, and mailed notices shall be deemed given three (3) days after mailing.

20. Severability – Each provision of this deputation is intended to be severable. In the event that one or more of the provisions contained herein shall be for any reason held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the same shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this deputation letter, but this deputation letter shall be construed as if such invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions had never been contained herein, provided, however, that no provision shall be severed if it is clearly apparent under the circumstances that the parties would not have executed the deputation letter without such provision.

21. Consolidation, Merger or Sale of Assets – In the event of a future disposition of the properties and businesses of the Company by merger, consolidation, sale of assets, or otherwise, then the Company may elect to assign this deputation letter and all of its rights and obligations hereunder to the acquiring or surviving person or entity; provided that such corporation, person or entity shall assume in writing all of the obligations of the Company hereunder; and provided further that the Company (in the event and so long as it remains in business as an independent on-going enterprise) shall remain liable for the performance of its obligations hereunder, should there be an unjustified failure of the acquiring corporation or entity to perform its obligations contained herein.

22. Minimum stipulated stay in the company after returning to base location:

a) You are required to remain in employment of the Company for a minimum duration of double the period of the onsite assignment upon your return to the base location. However, the total period of such obligation shall not exceed six (6) months.

b) Damages for Breach of Term Provision: You acknowledge that the Company incurs significant costs towards your deputation and subsequent return, including (but not limited to) visa/work permit processing, travel expenses, and specific training. In the event you fail to complete the stipulated stay period after returning from onsite, you agree to pay the Company:

- Sum of EURO 5000 as liquidated damages.

This amount is mutually agreed to be a fair estimate of the loss and inconvenience caused to the Company, and is independent of and in addition to the notice period obligations and any other recoverable costs under this Agreement
